GOBS WALKED ON.

(Delayed account—Official scorer overslept—Delivered box score late last night.)

Heavy hitting and unusual fielding won for the locals in the game against the Naval Transport, Wednesday afternoon. Schofield on the mound, was invincible, allowing only one clean hit in the entire nine frames. A scratch hit was chalked against him when the umpire denied right-fielder Shollenberger credit for the clean and sensational catch he made in the right field. Otis played one of his best games, pulling down several hot ones, that with an ordinary second baseman would have been clean hit. Ziegler, at short, ran a close second to Otis, and did pretty work, both in the field and at bat. Otis' hard hitting was a feature of the game.

McGarr played a good game at first. Long, who caught a very pretty game, also did some very heavy stick work. A glance at the box score will show how well the rest of them played. Look it over.

WARNING.

At the Thursday night performance in the theater, a trio of the boys at this Post were called up for raising uncalled for disturbances, and were retired to the guard house.

Good fun is all right, and enthusiastic applause is delightful, but that brand of humor which elicits howls, cat-calls, and groans when the theatre is dark and the moving pictures are on, is uncalled for. Just when the romance of the picture is developing it is surely waggish enough for the Aleck, whoever he may be, to release a grunt or a siren sigh. However, with the mixed audience that is usually there, considerable criticism of this stuff has been provoked. Enough said, young men.

Be wise, oh Jokers, for the bricks are going to tumble down on your comical heads very soon. You all remember the fable of "Killing the Goose with the Golden Egg" and it sure will happen and the goblins of just wrath will get you "if you don't watch out."

Be careful in treading on the sore toe or thought of your neighbor.

THAT SWIMMING BEACH.

Since our editorial in the issue of June 11, regarding the swimming beach, a healthy response has drifted in. We print below one of the many responsive notes received by us. If that sandy beach can be obtained, and we hope it can, all members of the Post will profit by it. Here's our friend's letter, which appears as anonymous by choice:

Editor Gee Aitch 43::

Dear Sir:-

I read your editorial in Wednesday's "Gee Aitch 43" in regard to a bathing beach, with much interest. I, for one, favor the plan, for I am very fond of swimming, in fact, you might term me a "Beach-nut."

More power to you. Let's Go!

Complaints have been coming in regarding the bad repair of the Nurse's Tennis Court. It seems that the ground is so low that great pools of mud and water remain at length after showers, and that Old Sol is the only means of drying the court in fit shape for use, and that takes from one to two days. Meanwhile, activity in tennis lies dormant, and weeds begin to find their way to the surface of the soil. If these complaints are well founded, and they seem to be, why couldn't this trouble be remedied? Add a little bit more soil and obtain some means of drainage for this worthy little spot of earth.

AWAY ON PASS.

Sgt. 1st c. Fred Durrance, loaded down heavily with baggage, took his departure for a ten day leave to central Florida.

Sgt. Harold Robinson, Librarian, left yesterday to spend ten days of excitement before John Barleycorn is laid away, up in smoky Pittsburgh, Penna.

Pvt. 1st c. Edwin Usher has also left on a short sojourn homeward.

PATIENTS INVITED TO SERVICES.

U. S. A. Gen'l Hospital No. 43, National Soldiers' Home, Va. June 10th, 1919.

FROM: Captain Cosby M. Robertson, Chaplain.

TO: Patients.

SUBJECT: Religious Services.

1. You are cordially invited to attend divine worship at the Post Chapel on Sunday morning at 9:30. The services will last one hour. The choir will render special music for the occasion. The subject for discussion will be: "The Unpardonable Sin."

COSBY M. ROBERTSON, Captain, Chaplain.

HAMPTON MADE HOSP. SGT. AND 2nd LIEUTENANT.

Roy Hampton, who left us a few days ago, and whom we recorded as a Sgt. 1st c. was made a Hospital Sergeant only a day or so before leaving, and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Quartermaster Reserve Corps, the day following his discharge. Rather rapid promotion, say we, but congratulations to the sergeant.

MARGUERITE MOSER BRUM-BAUGH RED CROSS GUEST

Marguerite Moser Brumbaugh, who is visiting Miss Cabell in Phoebus, was a visitor on the Post Thursday and Friday. This lady, a trained vocalist, assisted the band, during the concert hour with her delightful singing.

SOUNDS LIKE MOVIES.

We have all heard of Tom Mix and his wonderful ability to rope and bulldog steers. But he has nothing on one of our boys from Pa. He was heard to remark: Don't be afraid little girl, all I have to do is just walk over and grab them by the horns and then they can't hurt you.

MAYBE YOU WOULD, BUT I DOUBT IT.

If a dear little hand lay folded in yours

With your fingers entwined all about it,

Would you let it go with never a squeeze?

Well, maybe you would, but I doubt it.

If a dear little head lay close to your heart

With ringlets of gold all about it, Would you push it away as it 'twere a pest?

Well, maybe you would, but I doubt it.

If a dear little waist within reach of your arm

Were to invite your arm to go about it.

Would you turn quite away and resist that sweet charm?

Well, maybe you would, but I doubt it.

If a wonderful look from two eyes of sweet brown

Met yours when you least thought about it,

Would you give back a stare or a scowl or a frown?

Well, maybe you would, but I doubt it.

If a dear rose-bud mouth were quite, quite close to yours,

With an innocent freshness about it, Would you wait but a moment, then say: "Not for mine?"

Well, maybe you would, but I doubt it.

If the same little girl with those same demure charms

Were your wife, when all suitors you'd routed,

Would you love her, and cherish and cleave to her arms?

Well, maybe you would, but I doubt

Thursday night. There are many other good players, however, and confidence in the strength of the team has not been lessened. Hook, the new pitcher, is showing fine form, and with the other pitchers that are breaking in, the pitching staff will be pretty soon rounded out. Taylor pitched yesterday. Stauffer, the iron man, will pitch this afternoon at Langley Field, and tomorrow when Camp Stuart comes here, Schofield, the heady and clever pitcher, will be relied on to win the game for us.

There will be a double-header Sunday, since the officers of Camp Stuart will play the local officer's team here at home. A busy day. Let's Go!

MORMON MOTTOES.

ODZ AND ENZ.

A colored aspirant for a commission was being examined.

"And supposing you were in command of a regiment on the field of battle and, in some manner, your men should be scattered over a territory of several miles. How would you collect them?"

"Well, suh," answered the prospective, as he scratched his head, "I think I'd take out a paih ob dice and hollah, 'Whos goin' to fade dishyere one dollah bill?""

Transferred To Camp Merritt, N. J.

Miss Mary C. Boyle, nurse at this hospital, has been transferred to Camp Merritt, Tenafly, N. J., and will be assigned there for duty.

COMEDY.

Dear Secretary of War:

I have been in the Army three weeks, next Sunday. Have never been away from home before, and am homesick. I am tired of the Army. The boys are so vulgar, and the food is rotten, the tents we sleep in are regular leaking ovens. I am 26 years old, and I want to go back to my mother, so please send my discharge in the return mail.

Yours after Discharge, (Signed) Homesick Rookie.

P. S.—The "top kick" don't like me, either.

We are in receipt of a letter from Pvt. Andre E. Paul, concerning the careful handling of original manuscript he may submit at various times. It reads thus:

Sergeant H. M. Hanson, Editor "Gee Aitch 43."

Dear Editor:

I hope I am not taking too much of your time with my foolish stuff, nor too much space. If you don't use (and I don't see why you should) any of my jokes, will you please return to me, as I shall keep it for a souvenir.

A German prisoner said: "The French fought for revenge, the English for colonies, the Americans for souvenirs."

Respectfully yours, (Signed) Impatient Paid, U. S. A. Guest at Hotel H......, Private bed 100.

THE BAND BACK ON THE JOB.

One by one, the ailing band men are returning from the hospital, and the last few days have found the old organization pulling together, and delightfully rendering afternoon outdoor concerts. Good work, boys, we are for you.

BACK FROM FURLOUGH.

Cpl. Arntz back on the job after spending several days at his home in Reading, Penna. with "her". Cpl. O'Brien has also returned and again on the job.
